OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The market has finally broken through the all-time high of 8,130. More importantly, the new support held when it was tested a few times following the breakout. Energy Dev. Corp. (EDC) was the most heavily traded stock following the tender offer initiated by the consortium of Macquarie Infrastructure & Real Assets (MIRA) and Arran Investments, an affiliate of the Singapore sovereign wealth fund. A total of 10.5 billion shares were tendered but the bidders were only willing to buy a maximum of 8.9 billion shares at PHP7.25/share. EDC will eventually be delisted. Megawide Corp (MWIDE) also caught investors' attention on changes in its management as well as its on-going feud with Filinvest Land Corp. (FLI). International Container Terminal Services (ICT) acquired a 35% stake in Manila North Harbor, a facility that handles bulk and break bulk cargo as well as passenger passage. ICT also signed a 25-year concession to operate two container ports in Papua New Guinea.

While the recent rally has been rewarding to investors, those already invested may want to take some profits off the table as valuations are already rich. Moreover, the market may have moved ahead of itself as a key macro driver that the market has been anticipating, i.e., passage of Package 1 of the CTRP, is yet to be approved. At current levels, the market has already priced in the approval of Package 1. Any disappointment regarding this measure will likely trigger a sell off.
