INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

UHDF seeks to provide long-term growth of capital appreciation and steady income stream through investments in domestic, listed common and preferred shares. It also aims to surpass its benchmark (gross of fees) which is the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi). This should not be construed, however, as a guarantee of yield.

CLIENT SUITABILITY

A client profiling process should be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her/their investment objective and risk tolerance. Clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust/Plan Rules of the Fund, which may be obtained from the Trustee, before deciding to invest.

- the UHDF is suitable only for investors who:
 - have an aggressive risk profile based on the results of the accomplished Client Suitability Assessment Form;
 - are willing to dedicate a small portion of their portfolio, preferably excess funds, for at least 18 months with a high level of return and corresponding risk on an equity portfolio; and
 - understands the significance of fluctuating unit prices and that any income/loss arising from market volatilities and price fluctuations is for client's account.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The market continued to correct as investors shook-off unreasonable expectations that pushed valuations to unsustainable levels. The PSEi fell by almost 6% month-on-month to 7,980. We expect the market to remain weak as it faces strong headwinds. Several capital raising exercises, mainly stock rights offering and a follow-on placement of a major conglomerate will likely siphon market liquidity. The continued weakness of the peso has also discouraged foreign funds from holding Philippine equities. Overseas the brewing trade war amongst major economies and tensions in North Asia have kept investors cautious. However, investors should closely watch the market as value is starting to emerge in some stocks.
