INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

UCMF seeks to prevent loss of income at all times by investing in deposits in local banks. It also aims to surpass its benchmark which is the 30 Day Special Savings Rate. This should not be construed, however, as a guarantee of yield.

CLIENT SUITABILITY

A client profiling process should be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her/their investment objective and risk tolerance. Clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust/Plan Rules of the Fund, which may be obtained from the Trustee, before deciding to invest.

- the UCMF is suitable only for investors who:
 - have a risk profile of conservative based on the results of the accomplished Client Suitability Assessment Form;
 - has an investment perspective which is short term in nature and willing to put all his/her/their money only in time deposits;
 - are willing to forego the higher long term returns generated by riskier investment; and
 - understands the risks of investing in products which are non-deposit, non-bank and with no recourse to the Bank.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

- Liquidity Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a loss.
- Reinvestment Risk. This is associated with the possibility of having lower returns or earnings when maturing funds or the interest earnings of the funds are reinvested.

TBG strictly adheres to the investment outlets as stated in the Fund's Declaration of Trust. Exposure limits and asset allocation is closely monitored on a regular basis. OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

December headline inflation came in at a seven-month low of 5.1% YoY from 6% in the previous month, bringing the full year 2018 average to 5.2%. Month-on-month, inflation declined for the second consecutive month by 0.6% from -0.2% in November. Significant drop in the prices of food (-0.6% MoM), especially rice (-1.7% MoM) and vegetables (-3.3%); electricity, gas and other fuels (-1% MoM) and transport (-3.9% MoM), resulted in slower-than-expected December inflation. Likewise, core inflation eased in December to 4.7% YoY from November's 5.1%.

For 2019, inflation expectation should continue to trend down as fuel and food prices should remain more stable. BSP's 175 bps rate hike last year should also keep inflation controlled. Per se, we expect yields to flatten and slightly decline. A possible reversal of the Fed's previously believed policy tightening this year could help sustain the downtrend in local bond yields. Recently, Fed officials have been dovish as there was some pessimism in US growth prospects
